Event: 10th Annual SleepOut

When: April 7, 6 p.m.-April 8, 7 a.m.

Where: United Methodist Church of the Palm Beaches, West Palm Beach

What: SleepOut is the signature event to end homelessness in Palm Beach County. Everyone is invited to participate in SleepOut as a community wide event. Participants are invited to sleep out overnight, or simply HangOut for program and festivities, or SleepIn at home. SleepOut begins at 6 p.m. with great food and music, a silent auction and kids' activities, with an inspirational program at 8 p.m., a movie from 9-11 p.m. and then it's Lights Out! The event will culminate with a 6 a.m. breakfast and Morning Reflection.

Corporate Partnership: GL employees will volunteer their time at SleepOut to help The Lord's Place raise awareness and break the cycle of homelessness in our community.

Highlight: GL encourages others to form a team at SleepOutTLP.org to support The Lord's Place celebrate SleepOut's milestone 10th anniversary. Post a photo or video at #TLPSleepIn or #TLPSleepOut.

Participants are encouraged to obtain pledges to support their teams and help raise awareness of the plight of homelessness in our local community and vital funds to support The Lord's Place mission to break the cycle of homelessness in our community.

Who: Corporate Partnership: GL Homes; Supporters: GL Homes President Misha Ezratti, Director of Community Relations Sarah Alsofrom, The Honorable Ann and Don Brown, The Lord's Place board, staff and clients; 2017 SleepOut Family: Mark, Ashlyn, Madelyn and Marshall Montgomery

Sponsors: The Honorable Ann and Don Brown, GL Homes, Searcy Denney Scarola Barnhart & Shipley, Brinkley Morgan Attorneys at Law, First Citizens Bank, Babcock Home Furniture, Braman Motorcars, FPL, Tablecloth Company, Inc., Republic Services, Magellan Complete Care, KB Technologies

Dress: Casual, dress for the weather. This is a rain or shine event.

Tickets: $25
